Perched on 4.58 private acres at the end of a cul-de-sac, this remarkable Afton retreat captures some of the most breathtaking panoramic views of the St. Croix River, with sweeping vistas for miles upriver. A circular driveway welcomes you past expansive perennial gardens, setting the tone for a property that feels both private and irreplaceable. The main level features a travertine foyer, wood floors, and an open, light-filled floor plan designed to take in the natural surroundings. The remodeled gourmet kitchen is a baker's delight with cherry cabinetry, granite counters, stainless steel appliances, modern range hood, tile flooring, and tile backsplash. Just off the kitchen, the sunroom is lined with Andersen windows, inviting in abundant natural light and peaceful wildlife views. The living room offers a true wood-burning fireplace with brick surround and flows beautifully into the dining room with bay window and crown molding. The upper-level features wood floors throughout, four bedrooms, and a (partially remodeled) full bath with double vanity. The primary suite is perfectly positioned to showcase miles of river views and includes a private balcony (deck), enormous walk-in closet, and remodeled bath with granite counters, jetted tub, tile shower, and glass door. The walkout lower level is an entertainer's dream with a full kitchen (kitchenette), expansive gathering space, additional large bedroom, 3/4 bathroom, exercise/flex area, and
